Digital Rights Management Typical Implementation Model

Readeraccess GATEWAY

1. Digital content enabled with DRM capabilities can be hosted on maga zooms server, publishers own server, or fulfilment services server for delivery over the internet

magazooms Digital Rights Manager

Authorized Users Only.
Please enter your user name and password for access.

user name

password

submit

forgot user name / password

user is authorized

4. Document content is made accessible on the current computer following successful authentication. If the document is opened on any other computer it will once again require authenicated of the user.

2. User opens document but content is not visible as the login screen is presented. User enters a user name and password which are submitted for authentication through the Reader Access Gateway user name password

authentication request

Readeraccess GATEWAY
Our Server

authentication success

3. User is authenticated by one of these user databases maga zooms server hosting authorized user database

Publisher or Fulfillment Services server hosting authorized user database